

PERMISSION SLIP FOR THE CONFIRMATION RETREAT
At Craigville Conference Center on Cape Cod
November 7-8, 2015

- To play, laugh and plan for the year.
- Behave in a manner that is truly respectful of others and ensures the safety of the group.

The following is a list of rules we expect the youth to abide by on this (and every) church-sponsored trip. We ask that you talk to your child about each one before s/he joins us on this retreat.

1. Sexual activity, smoking, alcohol consumption, drug use, weapons, and violent behavior are strictly prohibited during any Youth Group meeting or trip.
2. If Advisors suspect a youth of possessing cigarettes, drugs, alcohol or a weapon they will ask for permission to search the youth's belongings. If permission is denied, parents will be called and the youth will be sent home.
3. All medication must be turned over to the Advisors prior to departure on November 7th. Please provide clear instructions on dosage and timing of all medication.
4. There are clearly defined sleeping areas for boys and girls. Under no circumstances should boys be in the girls' bedroom area and vice versa. There will be common areas for communal discussion and lounging.
5. The group is to stay together at all times. Youth are not to wander away from the group at any time, and they are expected to observe boundaries established by the advisors.
6. As this is a time of true community and retreat, the use of electronic devices such as CD players, Discmans, and cell phones will be allowed only at specific times, with specific permission. This will be discussed on the trip. If used at other times, they will be confiscated for the duration of the trip.
7. Lights out and wake-up times as presented at the retreat are to be obeyed.

 If a youth violates any of these guidelines we promise to love him/her, care for him/her, and forgive him/her. However, if infractions occur we will call the parent/guardian, and ask you to come pick him/her up immediately.

I have read these guidelines and agree to abide by them all.
